At EA SPORTS, our philosophy about clothing is simple: we don't make anything we don't want to wear. And we seriously test the merch before we pick our apparel partners. The winners are Champion for sweatshirts and T's, Sports Specialties for caps, and Columbia Sportswear for jackets.
 Milk Caps (MCs) are cardboard milk bottle caps that have become legit collectibles. We found them on Maui and now you'll find one in every EA SPORTS First Round title. In addition to being cool collectibles, your EA SPORTS MCs offer huge savings towards the purchase of EA SPORTS clothing. Each MC is worth $5 toward your purchase of EA SPORTS stuff when you order from EA Direct Sales. See other side for details.
